Many thanks to all parents and teachers for Meet the Teachers night last week. Please find at the end of this Crest an attachment titled, “What Every Teacher Wants You To Know, But Won’t Tell You”.

Tonight we have our first P & C meeting for the year and every parent is encouraged to attend. This is one of our more proactive ways of ensuring that parents and our wider community are provided with the chance to directly have a positive impact upon the learning our children are undertaking. The meeting starts at 7.30pm in the staffroom and should finish by 9pm.

Tomorrow is our Swimming Carnival at Knox Aquatic Centre. We design the day to have a dual purpose. Firstly, every child who is turning 8 years of age or older is encouraged to participate for the fun of it! Swim well, earn points for your house and cheer everyone on as they race. The second purpose of the carnival is to allow those strong swimmers an opportunity to excel and move onto future District, Regional, State or National events.

Although it is early in the year please keep a check on your child’s hair for nits. Whilst this is not the most popular of subjects, nits in schools are a simple fact of life. There are plenty of home remedies and fact sheets that you can Google to inform you and your family as to how to treat an infestation, but please note that success using any treatment only happens when everyone in the class is vigilant and treats their children. Lack of action by only one family or student will result in the nits returning - so please keep a check and let the school know if your child has nits so that we are able to advise the entire class to take ‘action’.

Toilet Block
During the school holidays our toilets had a huge refurbishment. Many thanks to Matt Kean for ensuring this occurred. I must admit though he did have myself and another parent ‘hounding’ him! The boys’ toilets were ‘ripped out’ and totally upgraded. The aroma in and around both boys’ and girls’ toilets is non-existent now.

Trophies
Any students, who won perpetual awards (including sport awards) at Presentation Day last year and took them home for a family photo, please return them to school so they can take pride of place in the trophy cabinet or wall of the office. If you know of anyone who has left the school could you please remind them to do the same please.

Classes
NSW Public Schools are provided with teachers and staff on an age-based differential formula. Once the principal enters anticipated numbers of students, DEC Staffing will allocate a set number of teachers, SLSOs, School Administrative Staff, Counsellor times etc. It is then the principal’s job, with many hours input by the teachers, to devise the best mix of classes to suit the available resources.

Please keep in mind that as professional educators, we place students in classes after carefully analysing a variety of academic and social criteria. This may mean that students are not with the same classmates as in the previous year, although we do try to ensure that they have a familiar face in their class. Classrooms are first and foremost about learning and getting along with the teacher and peers in their class and of course students can always meet up with all their friends in the playground (remembering that their longest break from all their friends is only TWO hours). Being able to form a wide range of happy, productive and polite relationships, with a number of people of all ages, assists students as they become older to get along with the many different individuals and personalities they will come across in their life.

Rarely do we get this placement wrong.
Parents deserve and will be provided with reasons for class placement of their child if requested, but there has been a disappointing trend of late with parents demanding that their child is moved from their class placements. Rarely is it possible to move just one child from a class to another, or to ‘swap mine with this kid’. The complexity of classroom personalities and the interconnectedness of classroom interactions rarely allows for such an easy ‘swap’.

Whilst we will always listen to (and take into consideration) the concerns of parents, it is in the end, the decision of the principal and the school as to where the best learning setting is for each individual student.

At the end of this year, class placements will be done by our teachers. Please do not send in requests for special placements as the teachers will ensure your child/ren will be placed in the perfect class for them.

Risks of social media

Please be careful when using social media. Popular social networking sites include Facebook, Twitter and LinkedIn. On social networking sites, users can post information, comment and criticise. The benefits of social networking for parents include being able to stay connected with friends, family and school. Online, users can identify who they share information with and what level of information and interaction they have with others. However, they can’t control what their friends might do with their information, which may be shared more broadly than anticipated. For example, one parent may think they are telling only one person they are unhappy with another parent but this can be re-posted to anyone.

It has come to our notice that certain parents have been seeking to undermine the reputation of our school teaching staff. Any malicious and vexatious gossip can be taken as slander and defamation and staff are within their rights to sue. It does not matter what form you use to state or spread defamatory comments, it is against the law. Remembering that once something is posted on the internet it never truly ‘disappears’, no matter how many times you press delete.

The risks in using social networking sites include:

- defaming someone and being sued for doing so
- embarrassing or harassing others.

Gossip, whether online or in person, can often be hurtful and lead to distrust and disunity. Legal advice … “The Court has recognised cyber defamation to be the same as other forms of defamation and you can take action against a person who defames you over the internet. Even if they did not name you, as long as there is enough information for other people to recognise that the defamatory material is about you, then it is enough. If you feel that you have been defamed by comments, photos or other material written about you online you can contact the website administrator and/or the police.”

SCHOOL SUPPORT GROUP - Come along to the first School Support Group meeting of 2015—Tuesday 24th February at 9:30 in the staffroom. Morning tea is provided and pre-schoolers are welcome. The SSG is a great way to find out what is happening in your school and make new friends. We are a very friendly and informal group so please come along. All welcome.

UNIFORM SHOP - The Uniform Shop is open on Mondays 9-10am and Thursdays 3-3.45pm. Cash, cheque and EFTPOS is available (minimum purchase $20). If you would like to volunteer in the shop, please leave your name and contact details with the school office.

SCHOOL BANKING - Banking has commenced every Tuesday morning at the canteen between 8.50 and 9.20am. The Commonwealth Bank is continuing their commitment to schools Australia-wide, with $5 when a student makes their first school banking deposit and 5% on every deposit made (up to $10 per individual deposit).

SCHOLASTIC BOOK CLUB ORDERS
Please note that parents now have the option, if they prefer to do so, of ordering and paying for their book club orders online, rather than submitting paper order forms and cash/cheque/credit card slips to the school office. For how to do this, please see the notice from Scholastic. However, the old method of ordering and paying is still available. If parents do order and pay online, their order will be sent to the school along with the main school book club order for delivery to their child’s classroom. This means that the benefit is convenience of paying, rather than any speedier delivery. Please be aware when ordering and paying online that if you want your order to be SECRET and not to be sent to your child’s classroom, you must let the book club coordinators, Natasha Steele or Sarah Williams, know and give them some way of contacting you when the order arrives, preferably mobile number, otherwise the order will be sent to your child in their classroom. Natasha and Sarah can be contacted directly if you know either of them, or alternatively via a note in the book club letterbox in the school office.

Rainforests

‘Squelch, squelch, squelch’ went my old gumboots on the damp forest floor. It was extremely hot and humid. “I think I should rest here for a bit” I said to myself. I sat down next to an ancient, mossy tree. I took this moment to look around the dense rainforest I was walking through. Loud sounds of exotic birds echoed in the distance. Colourful flowers spotted every shrub. I looked up and saw layers and layers of thick branches blocking the sky. That was the canopy layer, home to most of the amazing animals in the world.

Rainforests

A rainforest is known by its name. It’s rainy and it’s a forest and it has unique wildlife such as bower birds, toucans and monkeys. Australian rainforests have 80% of birds that are not found anywhere else in the world. There are lots of plants and birds. So many I can’t explain. Plants and trees are the main thing to keep the rainforest living. They produce food and air for the animals. But sadly people are chopping down the trees and killing animals. We are all trying to stop this. Rainforests are the heart of the world.

What Every Teacher Wants You to Know... But Won’t Tell You:

1. Your respect means the world to me. I truly care about your child and am trying to do my best to make sure that he/she is learning! Please show your child that you respect me by talking positively about me in front of him/her and backing me up when there are discipline issues at school.

2. We are a TEAM. We are both working towards the same goal when it comes to your child—helping him learn and be successful! If there is an issue and I share it with you, it does NOT mean that I don’t like your child...actually, it means that I care enough about your child to help him resolve any things prohibiting him or anyone else in my class from learning.

3. If your child is five years old or older, please make sure she knows how to tie him/her shoes...or buy Velcro shoes. Taking time to tie the shoes of multiple children in my class only takes away time that would otherwise be used for instruction.

4. Please don’t tell me your child is bored. I try to make learning as interesting and engaging as I can and telling me this makes it seem like you don’t think I am doing my job. Many times what might appear to be boredom is often a lack of self-control and/or self-regulation (which typically works itself out with maturity). If we need to work on teaching your child how to cope with down time, what to do if he finishes early, or how he can be challenged, let’s work together and come up with some solutions.

5. I put a lot of work into the parent notes/emails that I send home. There is also lots of important information included, so please take just a few minutes to read it and check your child’s backpack every day and your emails.

6. Please bring individually wrapped or pre-cut birthday treats that are ready to serve. Trying to cut a cake or watermelon while 26 (or more) hungry mouths are (not-so-patiently) waiting can often lead to complete chaos. And when you send a snack like jelly, don’t forget the spoons!

7. Don’t assume that just because you struggled with a specific subject in school (i.e. maths) that your child will as well. Always encourage your child in every subject, not just those that interest you.

8. Let your child make mistakes and try to do things by himself. Don’t rescue him/her whenever he/she can’t figure something out. It gives your child a feeling of power and control when he/she can handle things independently.

9. Make sure your child gets plenty of rest each night. Primary school children need at least 10 hours of sleep every night. Don’t overdo it when it comes to extracurricular activities—children need down time just like adults!

10. YOU are your child’s first (and most important) teacher. Trust your instincts. I have your child for 9 months and you have them for their entire lives—don’t underestimate your importance when it comes to your child’s education! Make your home a learning oasis and read to him/her every day!

The simplest way
...to make ice blocks.

Summer afternoons are hot and sticky in Australia, and kids come home from school tired and hungry. Get them eating fruit with these super easy, fruit-filled ice blocks...

Place any combo of finely diced fruit into moulds like: mango, blueberries, strawberries, watermelon, rockmelon, kiwifruit, drizzled canned peaches, apricots or pineapple in natural juice, or passionfruit pulp.

Top with a fruit juice of your choice then freeze until solid – at least 4 hours, or overnight.

Enjoy watching your kids eat fruit!

GIFTED AND TALENTED PROGRAM

This program serves a readily identified community need - that of challenging talented students in a local setting. In addition, it provides an extra dimension to our general aim of providing each student with an excellent academic, cultural, social and personal education. Our program also offers to potential selective high school students, the high academic standard they are seeking, but in a setting which is co-educational, socially cohesive and community focused.

Our objectives are to:

- create a core class of gifted and talented students at St Ives High School. The group would be globally gifted but having specific strengths and talents in numeracy, literacy and problem-solving techniques;
- provide for the natural progression of gifted and talented students through a high school setting. These students have already been recognised and catered for in local primary schools and our program would complement developments in a number of primary schools;
- implement accelerated progression where appropriate, allowing future opportunity for students to complete the School Certificate and/or the Higher School Certificate ahead of their peers.

If you have any queries, please contact Mrs Patricia Gettens, the Program Coordinator, on 9144 1689 or email patricia.gettens@det.nsw.edu.au.
